Find manuscripts using the Journals Search page...

To access the Journals Search page, go to <http://pubs.acs.org> and click on the "search the journals" tab at the top of the page — or click on the "search the journals" button at the top of each journal home page

Use Citation Find...

1. If you know the journal name, volume, and starting page of the manuscript or
2. If you know the manuscript's Digital Object Identifier (DOI) code

Use Search Journals to find manuscripts based on author, title, abstract, or full text

1. Select one or more search criteria with the pulldown menu
2. Enter search term(s) for each entry field
3. Fine-tune your search criteria
  - And — narrows search
  - Or — widens search
  - Not — narrows search

Use Advanced Search Options to narrow your search further

1. Select specific journal or subject
  - To add more selections:
    - Windows — hold down control
    - Macintosh — hold down command key
2. Select timeframe
  - Articles ASAP
  - Current + 4 years
  - Archives
  - All
- Or select date range
3. Select how to display results
  - By date
  - By journal
  - By relevance

From the Results Page, you can...

1. Select how to display results

- By date
- By journal
- By relevance

2. Select HTML (full-text searching, enhanced 3-D graphics, link to ChemPort Reference Linking) or PDF (screen-shot image of original printed page) format to access your articles

3. Articles in a tan box are from a current Web Editions subscription (current year plus the previous four years)

4. Articles in a blue box are from the ACS Journal Archives (published prior to the current Web Editions subscription)
